Andrew Hensley, a senior at Harlan County High School, has been named the Bank of Harlan's Outstanding Student Citizen of the Month for January. Anne Lindsey, loan officer and marketing manager for the Bank of Harlan, presents the award and a $100 honorarium. The son of David and Gwen Hensley of Harlan, he has a 4.0 grade point average. He is a member of the academic team excelling in math, science and quick recall, and a member of the National Honor Society and Beta Club. He enjoys reading, gaming and fishing. He plans to attend Eastern Kentucky University, but he is undecided on his major. He will pursue a degree in the areas of math and science. The Bank of Harlan established the Student of the Month recognition program to honor outstanding students in the Harlan County and Harlan Independent school districts. Faculty members of each district nominate students who demonstrate exceptionalism in academic achievement, leadership, sports and community participation.
