

HCHS picks up awards in Math/Science Contest

Several Harlan County students participated in the Annual Math and Science Contest at Southeast Community and Technical College on April 30th, 2010. This was the second time Harlan County High School had competed in the SKCTC Walter Dick Math/Science Contest. Students from Harlan Co., Bell Co., Perry Co., Letcher Co., Knox Central, and Harlan Ind. participated in the competition.

The students in the HCHS Computer Science courses SWEPT their category taking 1st – Seth Napier, 2nd – Mark Brackett, and 3rd – Zach Parrott. CISCO Networking is taught by Mr. Scott Pace and Computer Applications is taught by Mr. David Hensley.

Students in the HCHS Anatomy and Physiology Classes took both 1st – Ben Graham and 2nd – Kelsey Penix (2 students entered). This is the second year in a row that HCHS Anatomy and Physiology students have taken the two top spots. Anatomy and Physiology classes are taught by Mrs. Nancy Scott.

Students from HCHS also took 1st – Will Parker and 3rd – Corey Clem in the Algebra division of the contest.

Official Results:

Algebra: 1) Will Parker
 3) Corey Clem

Anatomy: 1) Ben Graham
 2) Kelsey Penix

Computer Science: 1) Seth Napier
 2) Mark Brackett
 3) Zach Parrott

Congratulations to the students and their instructors at HCHS for a job well done.
