

Alumni Recognized

The Harlan County School District recently recognized six outstanding graduates of the county's schools just prior to the Harlan vs. Harlan County basketball game at HCHS on Friday, January 22nd. The program honored graduates of Harlan County Schools who have made a difference at home, in the state, across the nation and around the world.