

¡Bienvenidos a la clase de español!

Señor Emmanuel Anama-Green

Room # 205

For NTI days we will use our EdModo accounts. If you have not already signed up for your EdModo account, please follow the instructions below to sign up for an EdModo account for your class. (FYI—Most students have already signed up for an account in class. If so, you will only need to make sure your class is listed on your EdModo homepage.)

- 1) Go to www.edmodo.com
- 2) If you do not already have an EdModo account (i.e. never used the platform before), you will need to click, “I’m a student” to register for a new EdModo account.
 - a. FYI— The registration form says that an email account is optional. However, should you forget your username/password on an NTI day it will be very difficult to reset it if you have not listed your email address.
 - b. If you already have an account, simply log in and use your class course code to add the class to your list of courses. (Señor Anama-Green can help you if you need help adding the class to an already existing EdModo account.)
- 3) Next, follow the steps to sign up for an EdModo account. You will need the class/group code that pertains to your specific class, class period and trimester. The group codes are cited below for your convenience.

- 4) During each NTI day, you will need to log in and complete your NTI day assignment for that day.
- 5) Additionally, you will need to post a reply to that day’s post/assignment to check-in for that particular NTI day. A possible reply might be, “Me llamo your name. Estoy al tanto (I’m aware) de la asignación para hoy” (My name’s _____. I’m aware of today’s assignment.).
- 6) The below graphic shows what a sample assignment might look like for an NTI day. The red arrow shows what the assignment post might look like and the blue arrow shows where to post the reply to check-in for that NTI day.

The screenshot shows a post from Mr. Anama-Green to a group of students. The post title is "Second assignment-aug 21" and it includes a due date of August 22, 2018 at 7:45 pm. Below the post, there are options to "Like", "Reply", and "Following". A red arrow points to the post content, and a blue arrow points to the "Type a reply..." input field.

As always, if you have questions please do not hesitate to contact Señor E. Anama-Green via phone or email. The email address is: Emmanuel.Anama@harlan.kyschools.us and the phone number will be provided in class once we pass out the NTI folders.
