

Evarts Elementary Dr. Seuss Day

Students across the nation celebrated Dr. Seuss day on Wednesday. In the Harlan County School District, various visitors joined educators in promoting the importance of reading. Various other activities were school specific, but included artistic creations of Hats, meals with green eggs and ham, and numerous other events. The National Education Association sponsored the event to mark Dr. Seuss' 107th birthday as well as kick off the Read Across America campaign.

