

Evarts Elementary School recently dedicated a new playground for the primary students at the school. The playground was a collaborative effort between Evarts PTO, Harlan County Board of Education, Harlan County Jailer Curt Stallard, Harlan County Solid Waste coordinator Lakis Mavinidis and District 2 Magistrate Bill Moore. The playground was officially dedicated March 8. Pictured are, from left to right, Assistant Principal Jody Gilliam, School Counselor Jean James, Principal Edna Burkhart, Vickie Moore, District 2 Magistrate Bill Moore, and Solid Waste Coordinator Lakis Mavinidis.

