Evarts Elementary School celebrated Dr. Seuss' Birthday on Friday, March 2, 2012. Students wore zany hats, dressed as their favorite character, and even ate green eggs and ham. Edna Burkhart, the principal, invited various members of the community to participate in the day's festivities. Some of the special visitors included employees of the Harlan County Board of Education, public officials (I.e. PVA, Felicia Wooten and Judge, Jeff Brock and Nora Saylor), community workers, school stakeholders, and parents. Visitors enjoyed reading their favorite Dr. Seuss books aloud to students. This event was hosted by Reading Specialist: Marilyn Napier, Rtl Teacher: Sherry Anglian, FRYSC AmeriCorps worker: Debra Cornett, and FRYSC workers: Rebecca Wynn and Jamie Wynn. The birthday party ended that afternoon when all students ate cupcakes to celebrate the 108th birthday of Dr. Seuss!!!
