

Directions to Lexington Lafayette High School for Harlan County Black Bears vs. Lexington Paul Laurence Dunbar In the i-High Football Frenzy

The Harlan County Black Bears will play Lexington Paul Laurence Dunbar on Saturday, August 27, at 3 p.m. in the i-High Football Frenzy being held at Lexington Lafayette High School. The school is located at 401 Reed Lane, Lexington.

Admission for all three games on Saturday is $10 for adults and $8 for students. Children under 6 are free. If you leave the stadium and re-enter, you will be charged admission again.

Games on Saturday after the Black Bears matchup include Bryan Station vs Eastern at 6 p.m. and Tates Creek vs Ryle at 9 p.m.

Lafayette School officials recommend Harlan County fans use the parking area behind the school on Springhill Drive.

Two games are scheduled on Friday evening. These include Lafayette vs. Bell County at 6 p.m. and Henry Clay vs. Bowling Green at 9 p.m. Ticket prices are the same on Friday as on Saturday.

Depending on your familiarity with Lexington, here are directions recommended: Estimated time is two hours and 45 minutes to reach the school parking lot.

For those more familiar with Lexington, directions No. 1 and No. 2 might be the preferred routes:

No. 1

Take exit 104 from I-75 onto Athens/Boonesboro Road/Richmond Road; travel to KY-4 New Circle Road. Go under overpass and take left onto New Circle. Continue on New Circle Road until Nicholasville road. Go up ramp and take right onto Nicholasville Road/US 27. Travel 1 mile and turn left onto Southland Drive at Shell Station. Southland drive becomes Lafayette Parkway. Continue on Lafayette Parkway until turning right onto Reed Lane. (If you reach Woodbine Drive you have gone too far.) Lafayette High School is on the left.

For those not as familiar with Lexington, directions No. 3 might be the preferred route but requires you to travel a longer distance:

No. 3

I-75 to Paris-Lexington (US 27) exit 113. This road is Broadway. Stay on Broadway through town and make a left onto Clays Mill. (There will be a dry cleaners at this intersection.) It is just past St. Joseph Hospital. Take the first left onto Springhill Dr. and the school is at the end of that road.
