

By JOHN HENSON

Harlan County Sports.com

Harlan County extended its win streak to four straight with a 25-15, 25-14 victory Thursday over visiting Knox Central.

"We're getting progressively better," Harlan County coach Donna Vicini said. "Our setters did a great job tonight, including Amanda Tolliver and Kelsey Cope in the varsity game, Cara Middleton and Lauren Lee in the junior varsity and Whitney Stevens and Taylor Weeks in the freshman game."

Cope had nine service points in the first game. Brooke Bledsoe and Kendra Robbins each had two points. Katie Whitehead added one.

Tyler Smith had four points in the second game. Robbins added three points and an ace. Cope also had three points. Whitehead and Bledsoe had two points each.

The Lady Bears won 21-11, 21-5 in the junior varsity match

Keisha Mimes and Cheyanna Harris each scored five points in the first game.

Lauren Lee had two points. Rebecca Eldridge, Cara Middleton and Brittany Wynn added one point each.

Mimes had five points in the second game, followed by Middleton and Selena Painter with four each and Harris and Whitney Stevens with two each.

Harlan County won 15-8, 15-11 in freshman action.

Katilyn Reynolds led the Lady Bears in the first game with three points and an ace.

Taylor Weeks had two points and an ace. Destiny Day and Brittany Clem added one point each.

Hannah Warner had four points and an ace in the second game. Chasity Lamb added three points. Charleen Mefford had one point.

Harlan County (4-2) returns to action Tuesday at home against Middlesboro in a district clash.