

Five of our HCHS band students were chosen to participate in the Eastern Kentucky University Honor Band on Feb.24th and 25th. The 300 high school students who attended this event were placed into one of four bands, determined by audition. These students were treated to a master class given by two members of the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra, which was performing at the new EKV Performing Arts Center on Saturday night. The students who attended the master class were given complimentary tickets to the concert that evening which featured the world renowned trumpet player, Wynton Marsalis who leads the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra.
