Approximately half million in scholarships and awards presented to Harlan County High graduates

More than a half-million dollars in scholarships and awards were presented to the 2011 graduating class at Harlan County High School.

Scholarships and awards were presented by various individuals and organizations to the members of the senior class. Some scholarship amounts were not disclosed.

Harlan County Schools Superintendent Tim Saylor said he is elated with the significant amount of scholarship dollars awarded to students at Harlan County High School.

"I think this speaks well for the academic and extra-curricular programs we have in place for our students at Harlan County High School," said Saylor. "The number and variety of scholarships received by these outstanding students speaks well for the students' academic foundation received in Harlan County Schools in preparing them for post secondary learning."
