

Congratulations to Harlan County High School students Tessa Evans and Emily Wills for being chosen by audition to participate in the 2012 All-National Honor Choir. This prestigious event is sponsored by the National Association for Music Education. The students will travel to Washington D.C. June 21-24 to join with other musicians from around the country. The event will culminate with a performance at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Evans and Wills, both seniors at Harlan County High School, have gained numerous accolades for their vocal excellence and artistic achievements. Tessa is the daughter of Don and Linda Evans of Evarts. Emily is the daughter of Glen and Barbara Wills of Rio Vista.
