

Five Harlan County High Drama members competed in the Kingdom Come storytelling competition at the 47th annual Swappin' Meetin'.

Freshman Michaela Simpson finished in first place with a self-written story "Shark Attack".

Junior Sarah King finished second with the story "Chinface Tells A Ghost Story".

Sophomore Ashley White placed third "Anazi and the Snake".

Noah Hughes (telling "Romeo and Juliet: As Told By Andy Griffith") and Jamie Madden (telling "The Blood Stained Sink") finished fourth and fifth respectively.

