

The Reading Buddies program at James A. Cawood Elementary School pairs community volunteers with first, second, and third grade students for the purpose of providing one-on-one reading opportunities, promoting literacy, and fostering a love of reading at a young age. Reading Buddies meets every other Wednesday morning for 20 minutes at a time, and is a program of Harlan County Community Education. Many local businesses have cooperated by allowing employees time during the workday to volunteer. For more information, or to volunteer, contact Cecilia Adams, Harlan County Community Education Director at 573-4330.
