

Rosspoint, Evarts and Wallins took the top three honors in the elementary division of the Kentucky Governor's Cup Region 33 competition held Saturday at Black Mountain Elementary School.

Students receiving awards were:

Mathematics Assessment: Emerson Johnson, Rosspoint, first; Garry Henson, Rosspoint, second; Janice Dean, Evarts, third; Randi Wampler, Martha Jane Potter, fourth; and Jonathan Little, Whitesburg Elementary, fifth.

Science Assessment: Ben Lewis, Rosspoint, first; Cody Hall, Rosspoint, second; Johnny Smith, Wallins, third; Jared Lewis, Evarts, and Drew Richardson, Martha Jane Potter, fourth.

Composition: Meghan Howard, Rosspoint, first; Bella Back, Martha Jane Potter, second; Hunter McCauley, Harlan, third; Hannah Sturgill, Rosspoint, fourth; and Jasmine Grubbs, Cawood, fifth.

Social Studies Assessment: Candice Lloyd, Evarts, first; Johnny Smith, Wallins, second; Cody Hall, Rosspoint, and Ben Lewis, Rosspoint, third; and Noah Canady, Evarts, fifth.

Language Arts Assessment: Hannah Hoskins, Rosspoint, first; Emersyn Noah, Harlan, second; Emily Beasor, Rosspoint, third; Olivia Hammock, Cowan, fourth; Sarah Howard, Wallins, and Kaytlin Cornett, Rosspoint, fifth.

Arts and Humanities Assessment: Candice Lloyd, Evarts, and Jaiden Belcher, Rosspoint, first; Haylie Witt, Evarts, third; Madison Hall, Rosspoint, fourth; and Kayleigh Riley, West Whitesburg, fifth.

Future Problem Solving: Wallins, first; Cawood and Harlan, second; and Evarts, fourth.

Quick Recall: Rosspoint, first; Evarts, second; Harlan, third; and Cawood fourth.

Hume Sportsmanship Award: Harlan.

Team totals: Rosspoint, 53; Evarts, 24; Wallins, 15.5; Harlan, 14; Martha Jane Potter, 7.5; Cawood, 6; Cowan, 2; and West Whitesburg Elementary 2. Other schools in the region but not receiving points during this competition are Green Hills, Arlie Boggs, James A. Cawood, Jenkins, Letcher, Beckham Bates, Cumberland, Black Mountain and Fleming Neon.

Students placing in the regional competition do not advance to a state competition. The state competition is held for middle and high school students only.

