

Cumberland Elementary School students participated in the Quality Care for Kids program recently. This program comes to the school each year, offering vision and hearing exams to students who returned permission forms. Students who needed additional referrals received them. The Family Resource and Youth Service Center sponsors the activity.

