

Harlan County wins second, Harlan city third in JV Challenge

Harlan County High School won second place and Harlan Independent took third in the Section 13 2016 Kentucky Governor's Cup JV Challenge held recently at Letcher County High School.

Jackson Independent took top honors, while Knott County Central was fourth and Letcher County Central was fifth.

The following are results from the individual assessments:

Mathematics: William McIntosh, Jackson, first; Janice Dean, Harlan County, second; Benjamin Lewis, Harlan County, third; Drew Richardson, Letcher, fourth; Kilian Ledford, Harlan, fifth; and Jacob Rice, Jackson, sixth.

Science: Slayde Sizemore, Jackson, first; Lukas Ritchie, Knott, second; Jared Lewis, Harlan County, third; William McIntosh, Jackson, fourth; Luke Parker, Harlan County, fifth; and Jacob Rice, Jackson, sixth.

Social Studies: Hayston Saylor, Harlan County, first; Evan O'Neill, Jackson, second; Caleb Spencer, Jackson, and Johnny Smith, Harlan County, tied for third; Sheldon Tolliver, Letcher, fourth; and Eric Fitzpatrick, Harlan, sixth.

Language Arts: Halley Turner, Jackson, first; Bitty Foster, Harlan, second; Chloe Richart, Jackson, third; Ellie Eldridge, Letcher, fourth; Madison Hall, Harlan County, fifth; and Baylee Turner, Harlan, sixth.

Arts and Humanities: Slayde Sizemore, Jackson, first; Johnny Smith, Harlan County, second; Ellie Eldridge, Letcher, third; Halley Turner, Jackson, fourth; Baylee Turner, Harlan, fifth; and Bitty Foster, Harlan, sixth.

Composition: Eden Slone, Knott, first; Makenna Doss, Harlan, second; MadiLynn Smoot, Jackson, third; Evan O'Neill, Jackson, fourth; Sarah Nolan, Harlan, fifth; and Logan Taylor, Harlan, sixth.

Quick Recall: Jackson, first; Harlan County, second; Letcher, third; Knott, fourth; and Harlan, fifth.