

Teresa Roy's fifth grade arts and humanities class at Evarts Elementary School recently began their unit on the study of music. As part of the study, Harlan County Schools Curriculum Supervisor Jeanne Ann Lee, a level one nationally certified Orff-Schulwerk instructor, worked with students implementing the Orff methodology that combines singing, saying dancing and playing as a means to actively learn the elements of music. Lee quoted German founder Carl Orff as saying, "Elementary music is never music alone but forms a unity with movement, dance and speech."
