

Evarts Elementary School's third grade reading class visits the Readers' Cafe: All You Can Eat Buffet, which is also known as the library, for a "book tasting". Students were introduced to new book series to encourage them to read more of a variety of genres. After they "fed their brains," they enjoyed snacks related to the books they read.

