

The students and staff at the Harlan campus of Southeast Kentucky Community and Technical College entertained second graders from Evarts Elementary School on Tuesday. The college's students and staff provided games and craft activities and face painting for the students. Other festivities including singing Christmas carols, hearing from the Grinch and visiting with Santa. Each student received a gift and treat bag.

