

Andrew Tolliver, a fifth grade student in Mr. Andy Howard's class at Green Hills Elementary, won the school essay contest for Grandparent of the Year, sponsored by AARP. Tolliver placed third in the District Governor's Cup in the area of Social Studies on February 11. Principal Jonathan Perkins said, "Andrew is a dedicated, hardworking young man who gives his best effort in everything that he does. Congratulations Andrew on your success!"

