

4-H Dollars and Sense Program

The 8th grade students at Green Hills Elementary participated in a youth development program that is designed to enhance their financial literacy skills, through the application of learned principles in a real-world setting.

