

Natalie Middleton, a senior at Harlan County High School, has been named the Bank of Harlan's Outstanding Student Citizen of the Month for August. Kevin Cavins, assistant vice president and loan operations/marketing manager for the bank, presents the award and a $100 honorarium. The daughter of Mary Garland and the late Roy Middleton, Natalie is a 2016 Kentucky Governor's Scholar, volleyball team captain, member of the Beta Club, National Honor Society, Talent Search, Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA), Future Business Leaders of America, and served as a legislative page for Kentucky Sen. Johnny R. Turner. She has extensive community service and has been named a Commonwealth Ambassador. She is a member of the HCHS state and international award winning Community Problem Solving Team. She is undecided on her college choice, but plans to pursue a degree in political science or nursing and then enter law school. The Bank of Harlan established the program to honor outstanding students in the Harlan County and Harlan Independent school districts. Faculty and administrators of each district nominate students who demonstrate exceptionalism in academic achievement, leadership, sports and community participation.
