

The Elgin Foundation, Dr. Matt Nunez and his staff, and the James A. Cawood Elementary School Family Resource and Youth Service Center partnered for a dental screening for all students who had obtained parental permission recently. If problems were detected, follow up appointments/referrals were made. Students also received new tooth brushes.

