

Black Mountain Elementary School celebrated Grandparents Day on Monday. More than 300 guests attended. Grandparents, guardians and friends were treated to a program by the Black Mountain Choir and the first performance of the Junior Choir featuring kindergarten through the third grade. Parents were treated to lunch by the staff. They were invited to visit the school book fair.

