

Black Mountain Elementary students have been preparing and practicing for an upcoming county archery tournament while coaches have been meeting and training to expand the sport in Harlan County Schools.

