

Students in grades kindergarten through sixth participated in the Mobile Dairy Classroom at Cawood Elementary School. The students were able to learn about how dairy cows are taken care of on a farm, and how the milking process occurs.

