

Students the third through the sixth grade at Cumberland Elementary School recently participated in a "Pumpkin Walk" activity. Students had to choose a favorite book character and decorate a pumpkin. The pumpkins were displayed in the school library for students and parents to view.. Students who participated received extra credit in language arts classes. This parent/child activity was sponsored by the CES librarian Dana Hogue, the CES FRYSC and the CES 21st CCLC.

