

Students from Ms. Megan Donahue’s 5th and 6th grade classes at Cumberland Elementary School recently took part in “Escape Room” activities to review for their upcoming state tests. Students had to work with teammates to complete a series of challenges that required them to practice skills such as determine the meaning of vocabulary words in context, identifying main ideas and matching sentences to the type of figurative language they contain. Luckily, several of the students managed to escape.

