

Harlan County Board of Education Members Myra Mosley, left, and Pam Sheffield participate in the Kentucky School Boards Association regional meeting at the Corbin Center recently. Mosley and Sheffield were attending the session as part of the required professional development they must receive each year. School board members from districts across the Upper Cumberland Region participated. Corbin City Schools served as the host for the event.

