

Middle school academic teams from across the Harlan County School District competed in the first of two double elimination tournaments held at James A. Cawood Elementary School on Monday evening. Results from both competitions will be tallied to determine the winner for the overall competition.

