

Kindergarten students from Green Hills Elementary School recently visited Camp Nathaniel. They attended the annual Wilderness Wanderings Nature/Science Education field trip. Students participated in interactive educational activities during the day-long trip.

