

Green Hills Elementary School hosted a Veteran's Day Program on Friday November 10th. The Harlan County Honor Guard was on hand to present the colors. Jim Hill of the Honor Guard spoke to the students, staff and visitors concerning the importance of Veteran's Day and the history of our Flag. In addition, SSGT Mathew Hooper of the 149th Infantry Regiment of the Kentucky Army National Guard addressed the assembly concerning the history of Army Veterans and their contributions to the safety and security of our country and the overall role that Veterans have played in establishing and maintaining our freedoms. The Harlan County Honor Guard members, the Kentucky Army National Guard soldiers, and local Veterans were honored by Green Hills Elementary classes as they performed patriotic songs and poems. At the end of the program all Veterans received handmade cards from all classes, and were able to interact with the students.

