

Reading Night at Green Hills Elementary

The theme was "Wild About Reading." The children read a story called "Wild About Books" and participated in arts/crafts activities where they made a lion mask, and made lions out of Rice Crispy treats.

