

Students at Harlan County High School recently participated in a number of activities in preparation for the 2017 Solar Eclipse.

Harlan County High School History Teacher Eugene Farmer utilizes a miniature Black Bear football helmet to show students what they will see happen during the afternoon eclipse.

The art students showcased paintings of what they anticipated would happen during the eclipse.

Culinary students prepared "Moon Pies" as part of their eclipse lesson.