

NHS Induction Ceremony

In a ceremony marked by the traditional lighting of candles, the Harlan County High School Chapter of the National Honor Society inducted 57 new members. "The inductees tonight are a special group, recognized for their academic achievement and attention to community service, leadership, character and scholarship." said Anna Carruba, sponsor of the chapter.

To be considered for membership, students must achieve a weighted grade point average (GPA) of 3.5 or above, a standard that is higher than the standard set nationally. This is an elite group of scholars and role models. Inductees from the Class of 2018 and 2019 are:

The Harlan County High School chapter has been active since 2009. Each year the chapter sponsors several service projects for the school and community which in the last few years have included Harlan County soldiers serving overseas, Christ's Hands, Empty Stocking Fund, Angel Tree, Tri-City Easter Egg hunt and several individual projects.

The National Honor Society ranks as one of the oldest and most prestigious national organizations for high school students. There are chapters in more than 16,000 high schools and, since 1921; millions of students have been selected for membership.
