

Students in Mrs. Emily Jones' gifted and talented group at James A. Cawood Elementary School visited the Challenger Space Center in Hazard on Wednesday. Students participated in a simulated space mission. These simulated "out-of-this-world" experiences allow students to apply and learn additional skills in mathematics, science, technology, language, reading, communication, geography and team-building.

