

The first grade students in Mrs. Christen Lawson's room at Rosspoint Elementary School took their study of mathematics outdoors recently. The students were taking advantage of the nice weather and the recently revamped outdoor classroom.

