

Students at Wallins Elementary were presented a character building program on September 13. The program titled “Inspector Iwannano” is developed and presented by Mobile Ed Productions. The program teaches students to focus on their actions because actions show character. The program was sponsored by the Wallins Family Resource Youth Service Center.

