

Second grade students at Wallins kicked off Read Across America week with Oobleck! After reading “Bartholomew and the Oobleck,” students mixed up corn starch, water, and food coloring to create their own Oobleck.

