

Student in Rene Mattern's class at Black Mountain Elementary School worked with the Texas Instrument calculators to program computerized rovers during enrichment class. The calculators and rovers were provided by Gear Up through a grant at Partners for Education at Berea College. Students have learned to program the robots to perform various tasks.

