

Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Fields 4th grade class at Cumberland Elementary is learning about “How animals sense and respond to information!” Students enjoyed several challenging labs analyzing the data they collected. Students also observed a ball python “taste the air” with its forked tongue. They also learned how the ball python uses pits to see heat and track heat signals that their prey gives off.

