

With the reports of wide spread flu and other illnesses in the region, Harlan County Schools custodial staffs are working extra hard to sanitize for the return of students to classes on Monday, February 25, 2019

