Kentucky Concrete Association Scholarship

This program was conceived in an effort to better educate young people about the concrete industry. This essay contest is an opportunity for young people to learn about the importance of our industry and what concrete contributes to society.

Essays will be judged on content and writing ability. Possible themes include concrete's benefit to society, how concrete affect the environment etc..

Paper applications are no longer accepted. Students must access application materials online at <https://goo.gl/forms/Ujrp07Z0mXkwTTJa2>. Scholarship amount and specific scholarship details can also be found on the link listed above.

Questions can be directed to Susan Hagg at shagg@kyconcrete.org.

All application material must be submitted online by November 2, 2018.

2018-2019 Coca-Cola Scholars Program

Deadline: Application closes online on Wednesday, October 31, 2018.

The 2018-19 Coca-Cola Scholars Program Scholarship Application has been revamped for this year's cycle to make the user experience easier and more enjoyable. We hope this new format will allow more applicants to complete the application and give the Scholars Foundation a better snapshot of their high school success.

All application materials must be submitted online. Scholarship specifics and a step by step guide for accessing the application materials is available in the guidance office.

Nolen Lodge 806 Scholarship

This is a one-time scholarship for $750. It is open to seniors only. The attached sheet should be completed by the applicant and include an essay on the specified topic.

Only the information on the form and the essay are required to apply for this scholarship. It will be awarded directly to the winning student.

One winner will be selected from all entries received from Harlan High School and Harlan County High School.

Applicants must submit a 500 word historical essay about a famous, free mason's life.

All applications should be turned into the guidance counselor no later than March 19, 2019.
