

The Harlan County High School Superintendent's Student Council selected and presented the latest Black Bear Kindness Award to David Dakota Saylor, a senior. Students reflected on Saylor's caring attitude toward fellow students, teachers and staff. Saylor, the son of David Saylor and the late Margaret Saylor, plans to attend Union College to pursue a career as an English professor. He loves to write lyrics genre of rap. He also is pursuing an interest of becoming an author.

