

Mr. Carlton Hughes' Dual Credit Public Speaking Class at Harlan County School School recently created and filmed their own commercials in the school TV studio as part of a unit about persuasion. After learning about persuasive techniques, student groups were given a household item to advertise, along with a line of dialogue that had to be featured in the commercial. Many students said it was their favorite assignment so far. The class is offered through Southeast Kentucky Community and Technical College. Shown here are, front row, Destiny Parton, Troy Barton, Madison Kelly, Zoie Wilson, Katera Massengale; back row, Mr. Hughes, Shalora Neely, Janice Dean, Hannah Sturgill, Mahalah Bundy, Garry Henson, Jared Turner, Jonathan Daniels, Autumn Vaughn.
