

The Harlan County High School stage craft class prepares props for the school's marching band. The props will be used during upcoming competitions. Directors Jonathan Hodge and Shawna Hodge said they are most appreciative for the assistance received from the stage craft class.

